Peacetime Emergency Plan

COMMUNICATIONS

1. It is essential that adequate reliable communications be available to the Control Group, Emergency Services, etc. for emergency operations.
2. The Clerk is responsible to ensure that adequate communication facilities are provided, subject to the financial restrictions as may be considered prudent.
3. The Control Group must have a capability to communicate with;
 - a. Emergency Services
 - b. Senior Levels of Government
 - c. Members, away from the Group, and
 - d. Sources of Additional Aid
4. Emergency Communications - The prime means of emergency communications will be the telephone, with two-way radio back-up where possible. As the normal two-way radio facilities available within a municipality, are restricted by frequency to specific services, i.e. roads, utilities, etc., it may be necessary to seek additional two-way radio equipment and operators. This assistance may be arranged through the Police Department.
5. Standard Broadcast Stations - The S.B. Stations normally listened to by residents provide the best means of reaching the public enmasse, as quickly and frequently as necessary. With the prior approval of the Mayor, the Clerk will ensure that only factual and comprehensive information is passed to S.B. Stations for broadcast to the public.
6. Sources of Additional Aid - The Amateur Radio Emergency Service is a branch of the Canadian Radio Relay League, specializing in Emergency Communications in times of disaster. ARES contact will be Mr. Robin Siver, Emergency Coordinator, Oxford County, P.O. Box 253, Ingersoll, Ontario, telephone: (519) 485-2445.

ADDITIONAL AID

1. Paragraphs 5 and 6 of the Plan detail the circumstances under which Additional Aid may be sought.

2. LOCAL AID

A. Individuals (Directed OR Volunteer)

Where additional manpower is required:

- (a) Fire - The Municipal Act, provides that By-laws may be passed by the councils of individual municipalities "for regulating the conduct and enforcing the assistance of persons present and for the preservation of property at fires". When the appropriate by-law has been enacted the Fire Chief may call out bystanders to assist in an emergency and such persons so directed are covered by the Worker's Compensation Act.
- (b) Mayor - may ONLY call out the citizens:
- (i) General Volunteers - when such persons are covered against injury or death, by municipal arrangements with the Worker's Compensation Board OR private Insurance Companies.
- (ii) Emergency Measures Volunteers - when prior approval for their use has been granted by the Provincial Solicitor General which ensures coverage of such volunteers by the Worker's Compensation Act.

B. Agency Volunteers

The Social Services Coordinator will assist concerned Emergency Services in locating and contacting volunteer agencies, utilizing records maintained by his or her office.
